A Few More Failures are Announced but Friends are Bracing the Shaky Ones.

A Canadian Bank has Our Everlasting Gratitude for a Little Favor, a Mere Trifle.

Getting Down to the Drags.

NEW YORK, May 23.—H. C. Blanchard, a coffee merchant, has failed. The liabilities of Blanchard are $223,000. The failure is due to heavy dealings in futures.

FISKE & HATCH WILL RESUME.

A syndicate has taken the government bonds from Fiske & Hatch, composed of I. and S. Woomer, Louis L. Hoyt and J. B. Colgate, of the United States Trust company. It is stated that the syndicate took all the firm had. By this operation the bank and others having loans on bond are relieved and Fiske & Hatch are placed in a position to adjust affairs.

A FRIEND IN NEED.

MONTREAL, May 23.—It is reported that the bank of Montreal exported eight million dollars of gold to New York during the recent financial trouble.

UTYBES ON DECK.

NEW YORK, May 23.—U. S. Grant, jr., came from Morrisstown, N. J., his home, this morning to the office of Grant & Ward. He laughed at the rumor of his supposed flight to Canada and says that he has no intention of leaving, but intends to stay and attend to the business necessarily growing out of his financial embroglio. Col. Fred Grant is also in the city.

He Bled Everybody.

VINCENNES, May 23.—M. C. Mills, hitherto a prominent citizen of Robinson, Ill., is missing, and inquiry develops that he is a defaulter of various trusts amounting to about $1,500. His short-ages as village treasurer amounts to $500; as police magistrate, $150; as agent of the Fitch Insurance company, $180; as secretary of a Masonic lodge, $200; as financial secretary of the Knight and Ladies of Honor, $50; and as treasurer of a militia band, $75. He mailed his family $5, and bid them good-by, saying that he was completely swamped. His property in Robinson is worth $1,000. Mills was addicted to gambling.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The failures during the past week reported to R. O. Dunn & Co., are as follows: United States, 212; Canada, 20; total, 232; an increase of twenty-three.

BOSTON, May 23.—Joseph B. McDonald, of Woburn, lumber dealer, has assigned. Liabilities, $125,000.

Killed by Lightning.

TOLDO, May 23.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Emma Pfann and Miss Elsie Fear, sisters, were walking in the suburbs with a baby carriage containing two children. They took refuge from a thunder storm under a large poplar tree. Lightning struck the tree, tearing it to pieces, and killing Miss Fear. Mrs. Pfann had one shoe torn off, and was shocked, but not otherwise hurt. The children escaped.

Murdered and Robbed.

MILWAUKEE, May 23.—John Scott, a traveling man, became intoxicated with friends a week ago Thursday and was in the evening at a questionable resort. He was not heard of again until his body was dragged from the river, near the house where he was left, with a bullet hole in his breast. Three hundred dollars which he had is missing. The detectives believe he was murdered.

A Triple Drowning.

DETROIT, May 23.—At Port Huron this morning a row-boat upset on the river and Train Dispatcher Charles Mooney, Baggageman John Ford and Brakeman Thomas McEvan, all of the Chicago and Grand Trunk railroad, were drowned. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

The others injured were: F. F. Adams, Erie, Pa., sprained arm; Charles Talmade, of Connecticut, badly cut; George Scott, St. Louis, cut by glass.

The Iron Works.

PITTSBURGH, May 23.—This morning in the court of pleas a petition was filed by a part of the iron rolling mill firms of the Allegheny company, praying for the granting of a license for the trade tribunal under the Wallace act, providing for the voluntary tribunals. Owing to a dispute between the employees and employers of this judicial district a suspension of work is probable. Judge Stowe heard the application and announced if there was nothing to interpose license would be granted to-morrow. It is understood the petition from the workmen's side, which is necessary, will come from those outside of the Amalgamated association, as the latter are strongly opposed to a settlement of the troubles by arbitration.

A Contest Settled.

PITTSBURGH, May 23.—Justice Bradley, of the United States circuit court, this morning handed down a decision in the case of the wife of Lord Linton, former Miss Finley, of Kiltanning, Pa., against the administrators of James E. Brown, a deceased millionaire, confirming the deed of trust disputed by the defendants, conveying valuable real estate in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Nebraska, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas and other western states, besides money, judgments and personal effects, to his daughter, Mrs. Finley, and her child. The estate is very valuable and has been in litigation for a number of years. The proceedings attracted general attention.

The Methodist Conference.

BALTIMORE, May 23.—In the Methodist Protestant convention this morning Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Brown, officers of the woman's missionary society, presented a report and testimonials, which were referred to the committee on missions. The report of the committee on the publishing house was read and laid on the table. A telegram from the clerk of the general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, informed the convention that the assembly had adjourned, but that the action of the convention in Baltimore had been referred to the committee on correspondence.

Nebraska for the Old Ticket.

CHICAGO, May 23.—A special from Lincoln, Neb., announces the selection of the following delegates to the democratic convention: First district, John A. Creighton and G. P. Musston; Third district, Patrick Layhey and John G. Higgins, all for Tilden and Hendricks, with no second choice.

INSURED INNOCENCE.

A Lake Township Maiden Sues Her Former Lover for Seduction and $5,000 on a Breach of Promise.

This morning in the superior court Joseph J. Jenkins filed two interesting complaints. In the first Miss Catherine Roach, through her next best friend, Chas. Roach, charged Jno. Felger with deception. Mr. Felger lives in Lake township, where his father is a wealthy farmer. While employed as a housemaid for the old gentlemen, John whispered sweet words into Catherine's ear and completely captivated the girl, who was not long over from Germany. The young lady trusted too much in her faithless lover and the usual sad story of seduction and desertion follows. In addition to her suit for deception Miss Roach Palpitation or rapid beating of the heart followed by periods of complete cessation, is caused chiefly by nervousness and bad blood. If the disease is neglected it is liable to result seriously, especially at a time of sudden excitement. Purify the blood, strengthen the muscular and nervous system, governing the heart, by using Dr. Guyot's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will soon be rid of every trace of the affection.
